

JOHN NEWLAND.

MAY 26, 1842.

[Laid upon the table

Mr. AYCRIGG, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of John Newland, report :

That the only evidence submitted is a letter addressed to the Hon. A. C. Dodge, requesting him "to present it to the proper Department," in order that he may receive the amount of arrears to which he is entitled. The committee report against the prayer of the petitioner.

